

Dress for Success

By Rene Bastarache, CI

In order to be successful or to attract abundance into your life you must show that you're prepared for it. Do you appear to be prepared for success? Successful people choose to work with and associate with others who appear to be successful...

Script Begins Here:

How organized are you in the way that you dress? ... Do you have the appearance of someone who's successful? ... When you leave your home and go into public, do you appear organized and successful ... or do you look like you just got out of bed?

From now on you dress for success... You dressed according to whatever it is you are desiring to attract...

If you're wanting to attract success then you will dress successfully...

If you're desiring to attract a partner into your life then you'll dress in a neat and clean manner appropriate for attracting the type person you're interested in...

So, take a moment right now and imagine what it is that you desire in your life... What is it you'd like to attract?... Wealth... Abundance... Relationships ... or whatever it might be...

Once you've decided what it is that you want... then imagine what would be the best way to dress in order to attract it? ... Should you do anything different than you're doing right now? ... Imagine yourself dressed in the ideal manner to be able to attract whatever it is you'd like...

How do you feel now that you portray the ideal appearance? ...

Do you feel happy? ...

Do you feel pride in yourself? ...

Do you feel a sense of satisfaction? ...

Let yourself feel excited with the prospect of expectancy? ...

Allow those feelings to grow stronger as you imagine yourself dressed the way you'd like to be...

Imagine carrying yourself in the proper manner as well... with your head held high... shoulders back ... and making eye contact and smiling at those you meet, in a pleasant, positive manner...

Remember this image of yourself as the successful dresser... and the way that you carry yourself... as you find yourself each day... becoming more and more of the successful person that you wish to be...

Welcome to the new successful you...